

'Wild Wetlands: Youth Digital Stories'

Create YOUR STORY for National Youth Week 2010

Young people have the opportunity to tell their stories about the Town - Be it an environmental focus, urban art, memories or stories from their family history.

Digital Storytelling guides people through the telling of a personal story using multimedia tools. Participants will record their own voiceover and, edited together with music and digital still images, create a story. Stories can be fiction or non-fiction, allowing issues important to young people to be explored.

If you are aged between 12 and 25 and keen to learn some new skills or have a story to tell, then book in!

Can't make it to the workshops? You can still be involved by contributing photos, a written story or a completed digital story to be screened.

Where: Banks Reserve Pavilion,
60 Joel Terrace, Mount Lawley

When: Tuesday 6 - Friday 9 April

Time: 10.00am - 3.00pm

Who: 12 - 25 yr olds.

(Can work solo or in teams)

Lunch provided.

Bookings essential on 9273 6564 or
